

Are you interested in earning an advanced degree in elementary education while staying close to home?

Master of Science in Elementary Education Cohort

at Eastern Illinois University

Eastern Illinois University's College of Education and Professional Studies, in partnership with Regional Office of Education #12, hopes to offer a graduate-level cohort leading to a master's degree in elementary education.

Classes, which would meet in Willow Hill, will tentatively begin in Summer 2012.

Please join us at an

Informational Session

on Wednesday, February 1, 5–6 p.m.

Regional Office of Education #12

Alternative School

213 S. Cumberland St.

Willow Hill, IL 62480

For more information, contact Dr. Carrie Dale:
217-581-7889 or cmdale@eiu.edu

If you plan to attend, please R.S.V.P. to 217-581-5114.

Being part of a cohort has its own benefits. We all worked well together, provide[d] support when things got stressful, and celebrate[d] successes. I have made some lifelong friends...

The schedule was convenient. The professors were extremely patient, considerate of our busy lives, and always available through email. [Each class] encouraged reflection of what I was currently doing in my classroom and provided guidance and resources to help me improve my instruction.

—Yvonne O'Connor, Argenta-Oreana Middle School

About Eastern

Eastern Illinois University, located in the east central Illinois community of Charleston, is recognized among the top 100 universities in the country — a choice for more than 12,000 students annually who can select from a broad range of academic programs and degree offerings. Students attending Eastern receive a high-quality education characterized by small classes taught by a dedicated and caring faculty who place student success as their top priority. For additional information visit our Web site at www.eiu.edu.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY™